UMHLALI / KWAZULU-NATAL

Crowned Eagle

A proposed retirement village on the North Coast

THE VILLAGE BROCHURE

Homes 2 and 3, from the gardens

Architectural impression

A village in Umhlali

The proposed village brings 190 homes together around shared gardens, with four designs ranging from one to three bedrooms. A garden walk links the residential streets.

Proposed homes on aerial imagery of the existing land.

At the gatehouse

From the gatehouse, the view opens across the proposed concrete approach and traffic circle to the fields beyond.

Explore the village map →

Aerial imagery © Esri, Vantor, Earthstar Geographics and the GIS User Community.

Four ways to feel at home

Compare the designs in the streets where they are proposed. Some homes meet at the garages, while others have space between them.

Type A

Home 114, on the right

1 bedroom · Single garage

Type B

Home 2, on the left

2 bedrooms · Single garage

Type C

Home 8, on the right

2 bedrooms · Double garage

Type D

Home 1, on the right

3 bedrooms · Double garage

Architectural impressions of the numbered homes and their neighbours.

From kitchen to patio

In the three-bedroom Type D, the dining table sits between the kitchen and the lounge. Beyond it, the living space opens onto the patio.

Type D / Dining and living area

THE ONE-BEDROOM HOME

A patio of your own

In Type A, the lounge opens to a garden patio. The bedroom and bathroom sit to one side of the living space.

Along the garden paths

The proposed clubhouse opens onto a lawn beside the pool. Around the village, footpaths lead to places to sit, watch birds or gather for a braai.

The clubhouse and pool

A strip of lawn separates the pool terrace from the clubhouse.

The northern bird hide

One of two proposed two-storey pavilions.

The braai courts

Three courts share a path near the entrance.

The proposed central garden walk / Crowned Eagle architectural impression

UMHLALI / KWAZULU-NATAL

Find your home

Explore the map at your own pace. When a home catches your eye, send its number to the Crowned Eagle team and ask about floor plans, pricing or availability.

Make a buyer enquiry →

crownedeagleestate.co.za

Scan to enquire

Crowned Eagle is a proposed retirement village. Layouts, landscaping and architectural impressions are indicative. Ask the sales team for current details and availability.